About Jim Gold: Jim brings a love of music, people, languages, history, humor, and new discoveries to his tours, and dance classes, making them a joy for all ages. For over 25 years, he has led Folk Tours to countries such as Bulgaria, Greece, Norway, Poland, Hungary, Turkey, Israel, Croatia, Egypt, and Spain in order to experience their history and culture from the perspective of the folk dancer. Jim is a classical and folk guitarist, a folk dance teacher who makes dancing easy. He is the author of nine books, his latest being "50 Folk Dances choreographed by Jim Gold." As a professional guitarist and singer, his concert program has been performed at schools, universities, on TV and national radio. This is his 24th year leading Jim Gold International Tours.

About Joe Freedman: Joe's interest in international folk dancing and folk guitar began at 12 years old in St. Louis. He holds undergraduate degrees from Columbia University and The Jewish Theological Seminary, and a doctorate in education from Columbia Teachers College. He studied Israeli dance in New York with the legendary Fred Berk. In 1980 he and his wife moved to Israel where he organizes educational tours. Currently, he is Director of the Ramah Programs in Israel. He is a licensed Israeli tour guide and certified Israeli folk dance instructor. He loves to connect Israeli music and dance to sites in Israel and share his enthusiasm about the country with his tourists.
