Day 10: August 16, Wednesday: Tour of Inverness city center and then we go bike riding along the River Ness and enjoy the fresh air of the Highlands. Overnight in Inverness.

Day 11: August 17, Thursday: We'll get on a boat and look for Nessie in Fort Augustus before heading for a quaint evening with locals in a pub. Overnight in Fort William.

Day 12: August 18, Friday: We head to the top of the U.K.'s tallest mountain – Ben Nevis and then through Glen Coe, site of the infamous massacre of the MacDonalds by the Campbells. We end our day in a picturesque place. Overnight in Loch Lomond.

Day 13: August 19, Saturday: Morning is spent around Loch Lomond and the Trossachs before we head back into the hustle and bustle of Scotland's largest city. Overnight in Glasgow.

Day 14: August 20, Sunday: Transfer to Day 16 Airport. Fly out of Glasgow on airline of your choice.

About Richard Schmidt:

Born in Scotland, Richard received the “Lifetime Achievement Award” from the Polish government for his dedication in promoting Polish culture abroad. He is the Artistic Director and founder of the White Eagle Folk Dance Academy in his hometown of Montréal, Canada and Artistic Director for The Lechowia Polish Folk Dance Company of Toronto, the largest Polish ensemble in Canada. His instructional workshops and choreography have been complimented by decades of studies under several dance masters. He has worked with folk ensembles in Europe, Asia and North America since the age of seventeen and is well-known on the International Folk Scene as the Master of Polish Dance with standing invitations in the United States, Japan, Hong Kong and China. Richard leads a very popular folk tour of Poland presented by Jim Gold and is now expanding his horizons to include his homeland of Scotland. His experience, easy going temperament and joie-de-vivre always add to the comfort and complete satisfaction of all the guests on his tours! His sister, Carol, who resides in Stirling, is a certified Scottish dance instructor who will ensure that we learn the right stuff!
